her half-brother be released from patria potestas. To this petition is enclosed the second part which is a copy of the translation (perhaps from Latin) of the release-document (?). It contains a request to inform the released half-brother about the matter. Pap. Vindob. Gr. 25.821 from the second century A.D. is the last will of a veteran in which he bequeathes to his son a small estate and money. He appoints his wife as administratrix of the estate and three companions as his son's guardians. For cash of these three men as well as a trusty freeman was left a small sum of money. Pap. Vindob. Gr. 19.817 dated 125 A. D. contains an original-testament of a certain Ammonios from Ptolemais Euergetis.

Pap. Vindob. Gr. 25.871 from the year 373 A. D. contains a sale - ὁμολογία which concerns an estate in Oxyrynchus.

Pap. Vindob. Gr. 25.975 (from the year 263 A. D.) is a settlement of accounts of the epimeletai from Herakleopolis for the repair works of public buildings in the year 263 A. D. It is the only known settlement of accounts of these officials and is especially interesting because of the exact specification of the expenditure on the real and personal requirements as well as because of the exact data about the number of workers and the quality of materials used for repairs such as stone, bricks etc.

Pap. Vind. Gr. 12.922 b) from the Ptolemaic period is a complaint of the linen-boilers (λίνεψοι) from Arythedis against their trade-fellowmen from Therydis for the damage caused to the formers by running business in Sestis which belonged to the district of Arythedis. The complaint is directed to the strategos Apollonios and as it seems, they request him to admonish the Therydians and seek his protection for the linen-boilers from Arythedis.

PAPYRI FROM THE ROMAN PERIOD

Jean Bingen, Deux inscriptions grecques du Delta SB 177 et 178 (III-me siècle après J. C.), (Aegyptus XXXII, II, 399—405).

Bingen republishes here two inscriptions: SB 177 = a decree in honour of an Alexandrian bouleutes named Hierax. After the year 193, probably ca year 200, during the sojourn of Sept. Severus in Egypt, Hierax received Roman citizenship. He was member of the βουλή organised in Alexandria and in the same year 200, as an archont, performed the functions of agoranome. SB 178 is the dedication of an Alexandrian bouleutes and his sister, ma-

irona stolata, egregia, to their native country (Alexandria or Parchemunis).

Hans Lewald unter Mitarbeit von Fräulein Dr A. Calabi, Eine Synchoresis aus der Zeit des Commodus. Papyrus Rainer G. 25.867 (Studi in onore di V. Arangio-Ruiz III, 429).

The papyrus from the year 189 A. D. published by Lewald contains a synchoresis which concerns the sale of a female slave (cf. on sale-contracts of slaves my Law I, 250).

The buyer Aphrodisios is represented by Ἀπολλωνίδης (on agency see my Law I, 233). The seller is Titus Silvius Symmachus, a Roman citizen beside whom appears Julius Zenon as βεβαιωτής and proxy. The seller is responsible for eviction (cf. my Law I, 234). Our document is a katagraphe received by the proxy of the buyer. The female slave is denoted as ἀπὸ καταπλόου. According to the opinion of Arangio-Ruiz this term means that the female slave was brought to Egypt. The sale is a ἀπλῶ χρήματι sale. With reference to the words ἀπλῶ χρήματι it is said of the sold female slave that she is ἐκτὸς ἱερᾶς νόσου καὶ ἐπαφῆς. In 1.12,13 is our Nike denoted as ἀνακριθεῖσα (on ἀνάκρισις cf. the commentary, p. 436). The price will be paid to the seller not by the buyer but by his proxy but on the buyer's account (ἀπὸ λόγου τοῦ Ἀφροδισίου).

Aristide Calderini, Un papiro greco inedito con allusione ad una divisione di proprietà (Studi in onore di V. Arangio-Ruiz III, 273).

This document which dates from the times of Antoninus Pius contains an allusion to a διαίρεσις in form of a ὁμολογία between two persons, one of whom is a veteran. The author gives the list of all known διαιρέσεις.

Achille Vogliano, Amalia Cinotti, Anna Maria Colombo, Papyrologica (Studi in onore di V. Arangio-Ruiz II, 497).

This article contains the literary papyrus No. 176 from the Herculanian collection edited by Vogliano and subsequently (after the excavations undertaken in 1938 together with Arangio-Ruiz at Madinet-Madi): I. from the imperial epoch an ἐντευξις which concerns a priest who is accused of nonfulfilling
