Ptolemaic period we have no real evidence of antisemitism in racial and religious sense. Not till after the Ptolemaic period we are definitively confronted with a racial conflict. The open outbreak of the racial struggle belongs to the reign of Caius Caligula. The establishment of Christianity as a state religion did not lessen antisemitic feelings. The Jews were for the Christians the stiff-necked people who had rejected the Messiah and crucified the Divine Son of Man. Thus racial prejudice was reinforced by religious fanaticism. The Jews allied themselves with the Arian party. The reprisal came, when the patriarchal throne was occupied by Cyrill, that least attractive among the saints of the early church. Occasionally Cyrill incited the mob and lead it against the Jews. The synagogues were all captured and turned into churches, the houses of the Jews pillaged and the Jews themselves expelled en masse from the city. Thus ended the Jewish community of Alexandria.
