concluded by the daughter of Philemon and Thekla with a certain Herakleides, which designates itself προκαμψία ὁμολογία and concerns a gift from the husband, a donatio propter nuptias (cf. my Law I 96). The second papyrus is a sale of a part of a house and resembles the sales in SB 5112—5114. We find here the formula (v. 19) [ἰδ]ίᾳ ἡμῶν πίστει καὶ βεβαιώσει ἐκουσίᾳ γνώμῃ κ[α]ὶ αὐθαιρέτῳ προαιρέσει δίχα δόλο[ο]υ καὶ φόβ[ο]υ καὶ [βίας] καὶ ἀπάτης καὶ ἀνάγκης τινὸς πεπρακέναι ὅμιν καὶ καταχεγραφηκέναι καὶ παρακεχωρηκέναι (cf. my Law I 247/8); (v. 32) the οἱ καλῶς κείμενοι νόμοι (cf. CPR 30, II, 24) and in v. 39 an oath (see Bell, An Oath Formula of the Arab Period in Egypt. Byz. Z. XXII, (1913), 392 ff, and the ed. p. 93). The third document calls itself stipulatio Aquiliana (cf. my Law I 307, 322) (v. 3) τὴν παροῦσαν Ἀκολιανὴν καὶ περιεκτικὴν ἀμεριμνεῖαν (cf. Lond. 1008, 4; Mon 7, 43). .

H. ZILLIACUS, Late Byzantine Land-Leases from Hermopolis (Societas Scientiarum Fennica. Commentationes Humanarum Litterarum XIV, 3) (1947).

The edition contains three leases from Hermopolis Magna (P. Berl. Inv. Nos 16048, 16050 and 16055) written in the years 565, 579 and 589 respectively. In connection with the delivery of rent, the lessee in all of the three contracts engages to pay λόγῳ συνγράψιας a certain quality of other things (milk, beans, etc.). Berl. Inv. N° 16050 contains the stipulation that the lessee is not allowed to leave the arable land untilled before the termination of the lease. In connection with these three texts, forming a group by themselves, Ziliacus publishes a text being a lease acknowledgment from Hermopolis, Berl. Inv. N° 16, 166 (643 A.D.?). The lease is for a time of two years. The common view, according to which the leases of the VII century were generally made ἐπὶ χρόνον ὅσον βούλει, not for a fixed time, needs to be modified.

RICHARD G. SALOMON, A papyrus from Constantinople. (Hamburg Inv. N° 410). (The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology vol. 34 (1948), 98 ff).

The Hamburg papyrus belongs to the Aphrodite documents of the sixth century. The writer presents himself as the chief of the θειοτάτη οἰκία, the divina or dominica domus as it is called in the Latin sources. The title of this official, the administrator of the imperial „household” is κουράτωρ τῆς θείας (θειοτάτης) οἰκίας or
