All three lectures are illustrated freely by many splendid examples of the Author's critical skill in convincingly demonstrating to his readers the principle quoted by him at the end of his study, formerly formulated by C. Roberts: how the papyrologist can bring into play simultaneously the three resources at his disposal—experience, logic and papyrus. [A.Š.]

Fontes iuris romani antiqui, edidit Carolus Georgius Bruns, septimum edidit Otto Gradenwitz. Unveränderter Nachdruck 1958. Scientia Antiquariat Aalen. DM 45.—

Fontes iuris Romani antipui is a collection of the most important monuments of the pre-Justinian law. For over eighty years it has been one of the main instruments in the study of every specialist and scholar of the Roman law. The editio princeps by C.G. Bruns went into six editions; the last one was published in 1909 by O. Gradenwitz. The new reedition of the collection in the same shape which it had fifty years ago does not satisfy the requirements of modern scholarship. In the collection there are missing a number of very important sources which are of primary significance for the knowledge of the pre-Justinian law, as; the Syro-Roman law-book, the Constitutio Antoniniana, Gnomon of Idios Logos, Gaius from Oxyrhynchus, the tabula Hebana, the tabulae Herculenses, the Apokrimata, the fragmentum Leidense Pauli sententiarum, only to mention the most important sources partly incorporated in the Italian collection *FIRA*², edited in the years 1940—1943.

In spite of these essential deficiencies the reimpression issued by Scientia Antiquariat in Aalen, to which we owe also the third edition of the Edictum perpetuum of Lenel, will be received by scholars with gratitude. Till the publication of a new collection that will satisfy the requirements of the present state of scholarship, the Fontes will remain the unmatched aid in the contemporary research studies of Roman law. Ernst Schönbauer, Die neugefundenen Reskripte des Septimius Severus. P. Col. 123 (Anzeiger der phil. hist. Klasse d. Osterreichischen Ak. d. Wissenschaften 1957 No. 12 pp. 165—197).

In the beginning the author discusses the new reading proposed by Schiller and Joutie and then analyses the legal content of the apokrimata 1—6 and 9—13 to understanding of which he gives a very interesting contribution. Finally he deals with many important problems evolving from the praescriptio. [H.K.]

M. David - H. L. W. Nelson, Gai Institutionum commentarii IV mit philologischem Kommentar (Studia Gaiana vol. II Text 2. Lieferung; vol. III Kommentar 2. Lieferung).

The second part of the edition of Gaius' Institutes contains the §§I, 156 — II, 122 of the text and a detailed philological commentary to the §§ I, 137 — II, 123. [H.K.]

GENERALITIES

H. G. G u n d e l, Kurzberichten aus der Papyrussammlung Nr 6 (1958) Nr 7 (1959) unter Mitwirkung von F. Heichelheim. Universitätsbibliothek Giessen.

The 6-th number of the Kurzberichte gives Vorbemerkungen zum Inventar der Papyri gissenses. The author successively deals with the history and the inventory of the collection, as well as with already published and future editions of the Gissener Papyri. No. 7 contains Vorbemerkungen zum Inventar der Ostraca gissensia, arranged within the same scheme as the papyri. [H.K.]

A. E. A. W e r n e r, Technical Notes on a New Material in Conservation (Chronique d'Égypte t. 33 No. 66 (1958) pp. 273—278).

In this article the author points out that the alcoholic solution of nylon soluble polymer (Maranyl C 109/P) can be used for consolidation of friable and fragile material prior to desalting (e.g. the papyri and ostraka) and for reattachment of flaking paint (e.g. tempera wallpainting). [C.K.]
