
The Fourth "Gérard Boulvert" International Prize in Roman Law

The Journal of Juristic Papyrology 26, 220-221

1996

Artykuł został zdigitalizowany i opracowany do udostępnienia w internecie przez Muzeum Historii Polski w ramach prac podejmowanych na rzecz zapewnienia otwartego, powszechnego i trwałego dostępu do polskiego dorobku naukowego i kulturalnego. Artykuł jest umieszczony w kolekcji cyfrowej bazhum.muzhp.pl, gromadzącej zawartość polskich czasopism humanistycznych i społecznych.

Tekst jest udostępniony do wykorzystania w ramach dozwolonego użytku.

THE FOURTH
»GÉRARD BOULVERT« INTERNATIONAL PRIZE
IN ROMAN LAW

The journal »Index« accepts the invitation formulated by Institutes and scholars from Italy and abroad and has great pleasure in announcing, with the support of its publishing house Jovene, a competition to award »The Fourth Gérard Boulvert International Prize in Roman Law«.

The initiative which »Index« proposes to repeat periodically, aims to encourage the development of research in the field of Roman law and to commend, in the name of Gérard Boulvert, the works of young scholars of every nationality published in the last three years.

1. The competition is hereby announced for the award of »The Fourth Gérard Boulvert International Prize in Roman Law«, for a »first work« of a monographic nature, in the disciplines of Roman law.

2. The prize money is indivisible and amounts to 12,000,000 (twelve million) Lire. The winner will be also awarded the gold medal of the University of Naples »Federico II«.

In addition 5,000 (five thousand) French Francs and 5,000,000 (five million) Lire have been made available by the Institut de Droit Romain of Paris II University and by the Centro Romanistico Internazionale »Copanello«, respectively. It has been irrevocably decided by the Panel that these funds will either supplement the »Boulvert« prize or permit the awarding of »special prizes«. Further prizes will be assigned by the Corte Costituzionale of the Italian Republic, by the University of Nice, by the University of Camerino, by the Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche and by the University of Franche-Comté (Besançon).

3. The competition is open to scholars who have published or written in definitive form their first work in the three years 1995-96-97. The work should be of a monographic nature, on matters relating to the history of Roman law and Ancient laws.

4. Applications for entry to the competition, accompanied by a copy of the work, should reach the Prize Organizers c/o the editorial office of the journal Index, Via Chiaja 149/a – 80121 Napoli no later 15th January 1998. The Prize Organizers should also receive, under separate cover, four additional copies of the work by the above deadline. Works written in languages other than Italian, French, German, English, Spanish and Latin should be accompanied by a detailed summary (30-50 pages) written in one of these languages.

5. The prizes will be awarded in order of merit established irrevocably after due consideration by the Panel of judges.

6. The Panel consists of the Director of Index, Professor Luigi Labruna, of the University of Naples »Federico II« and of Professors Hans Ankum, University of Amsterdam, Luigi Capogrossi Colognesi, University of Rome »La Sapienza« Alessandro Corbino, president of the Centro Romanistico Internazionale »Copanello«, Michel Humbert, University of Paris II, Rolf Knütel, University of Bonn, Pierre Lévêque, University of Franche-Comté (Besançon), Joan Miquel, University of Barcelona »Pompeu Fabrat«, Peter Stein, Queens' College Cambridge, Günter Wesener, University of Graz.