ICCS PROGRAMS

Graduate Student Scholarships

The scholarship is aimed to facilitate the renewal of the community of Canadianists by supporting the work of young scholars, by enabling successful candidates to spend 4–6 weeks at a Canadian university or research site other than their own doing research related to their thesis or dissertation in the field of Canadian Studies.

More information on ICCS website:
<http://www.iccs-ciec.ca/graduate-student-scholarships.php>

All applications must be submitted to PACS by October 24th.

Canadian Studies Postdoctoral Fellowships

The fellowships are aimed to enable young Canadian and foreign academics who have completed a doctoral thesis on a topic primarily related to Canada and are not employed in a full-time, university teaching position to visit a Canadian or foreign university with a Canadian Studies program for a teaching or research fellowship.

All applications must be submitted to PACS by October 24th.

Publishing Fund

The International Council for Canadian Studies (ICCS) has established the ICCS Publishing Fund to assist with the publication and distribution in Canada of scholarly monographs on Canada written by foreign Canadianists who are members of a Canadian Studies Association or Associate Member belonging to the International Council for Canadian Studies. This fund assists foreign Canadianists by granting financial aid to a recognized scholarly press once the work is published.

The Fund may also grant financial assistance for the translation from English or French into a third language and from a third language into French or English. In this case, conditions and procedures remain the same, but instead of a manuscript the press will submit a published monograph that it would like to see translated. The Publishing Fund does not fund translations from English to French or from French into English.

Deadline for applications: 24 November

Pierre Savard Awards

The Pierre Savard Awards are designed to recognize and promote each year outstanding scholarly monographs on a Canadian topic. The awards form part of a strategy that is aimed at promoting, especially throughout the Canadian academic community, works that have been written by members of the Canadian Studies international network. The awards are intended to designate exceptional books, which, being based on a Canadian topic, contribute to a better understanding of Canada. There are two categories:

- 1) Book written in French or English;
- 2) Book written in a language other than French or English
